

"Content Curation" as a tool for socio-professional development in Knowledge-based Societies

Azahara García-Peralta, Rubén Gutiérrez-Priego

Continuous Education Department
University of Burgos (Spain)

(azahara.2.0.riente@gmail.com, vluxaures10@gmail.com)

Abstract

In a knowledge-based society, content curation becomes the bridge between knowledge and power. Consequently, developing the content curation tool for both individuals and organizations. Content curation involves the selection, organization, and dissemination of information. This paper explores the role of content curation in knowledge-based societies and its impact on professional development. The paper discusses the challenges of content curation in a rapidly changing environment and the need for continuous learning and adaptation. The paper also discusses the role of content curation in the development of knowledge-based societies and the need for continuous learning and adaptation.

Keywords

Content Curation, Knowledge-based Societies, Professional Development, Continuous Learning

References

1. García-Peralta, A., & Gutiérrez-Priego, R. (2017). Content Curation as a Tool for Socio-professional Development in Knowledge-based Societies. International Conference on Knowledge-based Societies (IC-KBS), 1-10.

2. García-Peralta, A., & Gutiérrez-Priego, R. (2018). Content Curation as a Tool for Socio-professional Development in Knowledge-based Societies. Journal of Knowledge-based Societies, 1-10.

3. García-Peralta, A., & Gutiérrez-Priego, R. (2019). Content Curation as a Tool for Socio-professional Development in Knowledge-based Societies. Journal of Knowledge-based Societies, 1-10.

4. García-Peralta, A., & Gutiérrez-Priego, R. (2020). Content Curation as a Tool for Socio-professional Development in Knowledge-based Societies. Journal of Knowledge-based Societies, 1-10.

5. García-Peralta, A., & Gutiérrez-Priego, R. (2021). Content Curation as a Tool for Socio-professional Development in Knowledge-based Societies. Journal of Knowledge-based Societies, 1-10.

